Dear Site2 Friend,

Welcome to the Spring issue of the Site2 eNewsletter! This issue will provide a preview to some exciting new service offerings Site2 will be launching this summer, including some of the new features in SourceCopy version 9.2.

COMING SOON! SourceArchive - E-mail archiving for corporate compliance and e-discovery.

E-mail systems are the primary communications tools used by the majority of information workers and the most important data repository that organizations possess. E-mail is increasingly used to send, receive and store corporate records - basically any content that must be preserved for long periods of time because of statutory obligations, legal requirements or best practice. SourceArchive will allow a compliance officer to simultaneously review e-mail, instant messages, Bloomberg mail, faxes and social media sites such as Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn on the same screen.

Stay tuned for more information on SourceArchive.

NEW! SourceCopy v.9.2

The latest version of our enterprise class cloud computing solution will come with some exciting new features, including:

- Local ONLY Backups - chose to backup more locally than offsite, based on the value of your data.
- Lite - new client agent specifically designed with a small footprint for laptops.
- Supports Windows 7

Slated for an early June delivery, SourceCopy 9.2 is sure to add value to your backup and recovery plans. Contact your
